Florida Gulf Coast University's Division of Public Affairs and the Institute for Government present a special opportunity to work with nationally renowned planner, Bill Spikowski. Mr. Spikowski will work with participants in a daylong workshop focused on planning practices in two challenging contexts. The morning will focus on the usefulness, construction, and application of form-based codes in urban areas throughout Florida. The afternoon will present policies and tools for planning in rural areas.

This workshop will be highly interactive. It will use the unique planning environment of the State of Florida to provide a backdrop for the development of good planning practice.

When: Saturday, December 1, 2007
Time: 9:00 a.m. — 3:00p.m.
Fee: $109.00 (Refreshments included)
Location: FGCU Student Union Building, Room 213

AICP Continuing Education credits are expected to be available for this workshop. Students may register for this workshop as a one (1) credit class for Spring Term 2008 by enrolling through the University.
